

ABSTRACT

[0043] Method, apparatus and software for registering a mobile node with a home agent. Registration occurs when a home agent is determined and a security tunnel having a single security association is established between the home agent and the mobile node.

5 The mobile node is then registered with the mobile node using the security tunnel.